ST. JOHN THE BAPTIST CATHOLIC CHURCH

FEBRUARY 22, 2026 | FIRST SUNDAY OF LENT | ARTIST: JUAN DE FLANDES

FROM OUR PRIESTS

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

As we push into this season of Prayer, Fasting, and Almsgiving, feel free to take a day of fasting and prayer for the parish. In particular, I would like to invite you to fast and pray as a way of interceding for mission- meaning that we would be praying for the Gospel to be received by more and more households in Ypsilanti. It's great to pray for other needs as well, but I think this one is the most important right now. We have an actual sign-up genius for this, so that we will always have someone who is praying for the advance of God's Kingdom here in Ypsi.

Prayer- In Sunday's Gospel we see the evil one twist Scripture, and Jesus respond by proclaiming the truth of God's Word. If we are in spiritual combat every day, then knowing and speaking Scripture matters. This Lent, consider adding the daily Mass readings and ten minutes of prayer (or ten more than you're doing now) to listen for what God is saying to you.

Fasting- Fasting is giving up good things to make room for God, sometimes even good things we love a little too much. Lent invites both sacrifice and repentance. Fast from what, though not sinful, may be keeping you from becoming a saint. For me, it was how I spent my evenings, too much entertainment, not enough prayer. The changes in my life began with Lenten disciplines and Exodus 90. It's not too late to join us for Exodus Lent.

Almsgiving- Almsgiving is about mercy, corporal and spiritual works, alongside financial generosity. It doesn't replace giving; it deepens it. If you were inspired by the homeless shelter at SJB, consider serving in the Food Pantry on Thursdays. Remember: Jesus wants us to use money to love people, not love money and use people. And above all, Lent calls us to extend mercy and forgiveness, our greatest calling as followers of Christ.

Warming Shelter- Many thanks to so many of you in the parish who so generously served the men of the warming shelter this past week. The 29 men who came through here last week experienced God's love through your presence and your generosity, and it was really encouraging to see this parish serve the needy with so much enthusiasm. I am especially grateful to Shawn Lenhardt and the Knights for running point on this operation. I also noticed that Jude Lussier, one of our 8th graders, took it upon himself to organize a food drive at HVCS to give the men snack bags for the daytime. Another parishioner gave them haircuts; this was a big hit with them. Many of them thanked me for opening up the church and wanted me to thank those of you who contributed to the effort.

God Bless You, Fr. Dan

STAFF TESTIMONY

Kyle Whipple

BUSINESS MANAGER

For years, I was certain I had life completely handled. I was a thriving military officer. My career was on the fast track, my family was great, and my future felt bright and entirely within my control. I genuinely thought I was the man—self-reliant, capable, and prepared for any challenge. My faith, while present, felt secondary and actually fed my ego because I was a “Catholic Man,” which was just a superficial title I used to bolster my status and pride.

That mindset and persona came to a sudden, screeching halt. Without warning, a medical condition stopped me dead in my tracks. This crisis wasn't just a physical challenge; it was an ego-shattering, forced pause that instantly stripped away all the career success and competence I thought defined me. Looking back, it truly felt as if God hit me in the face to change how I thought, lived, and carried myself.

I realized I was totally inadequate to handle this unexpected fight. Up to this point, I had always been able to overcome adversity by gritting my way through it. To use a military phrase, I would shut up, take Motrin, and work harder. This time, it was different; my previous strategies only made things worse. I didn’t turn to God for grace or humility; instead, I blamed Him for doing this to me.

After managing my pain, retiring from the military, and moving back home to Michigan, I pursued opportunities that I believed would lead to success in the civilian world. Things got better, but I had still lost my identity, and success in the military didn't translate to equivalent success in the civilian world.

My wife and I enrolled our kids in Catholic school, and I was able to witness what being a “Catholic Man” really was. I attended The Rescue Project by Fr. John Ricardo and encountered the Holy Spirit, which ultimately changed the direction of my life. I met priests like Fr. Dan W., Fr. Seamus, Fr. Dan K., and Fr. Jack, who are not only great priests but are good Catholic men to model after in general. Finally, I realized that living close to Christ was more than do’s and don’ts; it’s about a relationship.

My journey is not over and is far from perfect, and while discerning to take on this role, I was drawn to two words in our mission statement: To Form. We are not called to walk the paces by ourselves but rather to lead in our individual lives and community. If the military taught me anything, it was that followership is just as crucial as leadership. I’m excited to follow the Lord and support Fr. Dan in leading this parish. God Bless.

SJB CAMPUS MINISTRY

Equipping College Students, in the Power of the Holy Spirit, to Proclaim Jesus!

February can be a challenging month for many, and our students are no exception. To shine a light on mental health and overall well-being, we hosted two gatherings focused on mental health from a Catholic perspective. At our Disciples Night, Fr. Jack gave a powerful talk titled Saints and Mental Health, reminding students that they are not alone and that many saints persevered through similar struggles and can intercede for them.

We also hosted a brunch panel featuring three Catholic mental health professionals who shared insights and answered students' questions. These events were deeply meaningful and offered hope, encouragement, and practical support to our students as they continue to grow in faith and wholeness.

St. Gabriel Possenti

FEBRUARY 27TH, 2026

Francesco Possenti was born March 1, 1838, in Assisi, Italy.He grew up well-educated in a socially and financially well-advantaged family. As a young boy, Francesco enjoyed fashion and always prioritized being well-dressed. He was considered a ladies' man and enjoyed the admiration and flattery of young women and was known to be a gifted dancer.

Francesco sought fulfillment through his worldly desires, but at age eighteen, he began to feel stirrings in his heart to enter religious life. He soon fell gravely ill and promised God that he would dedicate his life to Christ if he recovered. Francesco quickly forgot his promise and continued to live frivolously. He fell ill again and made the same promise to God. After surviving a second time, he had an encounter with Our Lady of Sorrows. During a procession honoring Our Lady, Francesco heard a voice, unmistakably from Mary, and she reminded him to keep his promise. From there on, he was resolute and notified his parents of his decision to join the Passionists.

He began his novitiate with the Passionists and took the name Brother Gabriel of Our Lady of Sorrows. During his time as a brother, his fellow brothers noted that Gabriel was always cheerful, joyful, and faithful in following the rules. He was also very devout and strove to imitate the virtues of the Passion of Christ and Mary's sorrowful heart.

Before he could be ordained, he fell ill with tuberculosis. He died on February 27 at the age of twenty-three, just shy of his twenty-fourth birthday. He is the patron saint of youth, seminarians, and Catholic students.

Saint Gabirel Possenti, Pray for us!
